ROSARY/MONTH OF MAY

In our Catholic Tradition, the month of May is a special time dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary. As a beautiful way to honor Mary, consider praying the Rosary with your family at home. If you can't pray the entire Rosary at one time, then simply pray one decade each night! The Rosary is a very powerful devotion in which we meditate on the Mysteries of our redemption. Many graces have been received from God by praying the Rosary and seeking the Virgin Mary's intercession!

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES

On behalf of our parish family, we extend our prayers, support, and best wishes to all who are celebrating their graduation! Bryant Gunn will be graduating from high school. Matthew Renaud, Olivia DeLay, Trent Davis, and Grace Fitzgerald will be graduating from St. Henry School. We also congratulate our young people graduating from college. We are very proud of each and every one of you! With God's help and guidance in your life, may all your dreams come true! Congratulations!
